

WIND WRECKS BIG BUILDING

Old Christian College At Hustonville
Practically Ruined By Wind-storm Wednesday Night

One of the most peculiar wind-storms ever known in this section of Kentucky practically demolished the old Christian College, now used as the graded and high school building at Hustonville, unroofed several other structures and did quite a lot of other damage there about 8 o'clock Wednesday night. The miniature cyclone then took a hop, skip and a jump and flattened out about 15 telephone poles along the Stanford and Crab Orchard pike, just south of Rowland, and about 12 miles east of the scene of its other antics. So far as can be learned, beyond blowing down a number of trees and tearing off limbs, no other damage of consequence was done by the small-sized tornado which raged through this section early that evening.

The old college building is practically a ruin. Luckily the force of the wind struck it on the west side, Supt. S. S. Robinson, of the Hustonville high and graded school, makes his home with his family, in rooms in the northern part of the building, and were uninjured when the west end went down and the roof were torn off. The walls of the other portion of the building, are warped so, it is said, that they will all have to be rebuilt before the building is habitable or safe for use again. There was $2,500 insurance carried on the building in the insurance agency of R. M. Newland, of Stanford, and Mr. Newland, states that settlement will be made promptly.

A portion of the big flour mill of the Hustonville Milling Company was unroofed by the heavy wind and telephone wires and poles went down in the wake of the storm, the damage being particularly severe out Hustonville street, going south from Hustonville. The wind cut several unusual capers, driving pieces of timber and rafters from the school building into the houses of F. M. Yowell and Mrs. Helen Huffman, until it looked like they had been stuck there like pins in a pin cushion.

The heavy wind ushered in one of the coldest spells of the present winter. The temperature during the past week has amply demonstrated the variety of weather which is always on tap in this section of Kentucky. No more delightful spring days can be imagined than were enjoyed here Monday and Tuesday. A hard rain Wednesday, with the wind-storm of that night, was followed by a drop in temperature to almost zero Friday morning, and a light covering of snow over the ground.

Thermometers are hovering around 10 above zero all day today.

MET HORRIBLE DEATH

News from Bryantville, tells of the horrible death of Mrs. Sallie Welch there last week. Mrs. Welch had been in declining health and before retiring took from the bed a pillow and was standing before an open place warming it, preparatory to retiring, when the pillow and her clothing caught on fire and she was so horribly burned that she died shortly afterward. She was a splendid woman and had many friends in the community in which she lived. She was the mother of Mrs. Sam P. Deatherage of Richmond.

SOLD FINE BLOODHOUNDS

Marshall Herring, of Hustonville, sold one of his fine English bloodhounds this week to Gen. Roger D. Williams, of Lexington. Mr. Herring took the pup, which is a six-months-old bitch, over to Lexington and delivered her personally to the head of the Kentucky State Guard, who was greatly pleased with the brute. There will be regular preaching at the Hustonville Presbyterian church each first and third Sundays by Paul S. VanDyke of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

KILLED AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Miss Cynthia Sowders, 18 years of age, fell from the fourth story of the main building of the School for the Deaf at Danville late Tuesday night and was instantly killed. She was on the first floor and left for her room only a few minutes before her lifeless body was found. With other young women she had been playing and it is thought that she raised the window, and sitting down to cool, lost her balance. She was the daughter of Mrs. Rachel Sowders, of Knox county.

DAMAGE SUITS DEFEATED

The L. & N. Railroad won the damage suits against it in the Franklin circuit court brought by W. S. Seantland, Ida, Mary and Bryon Seantland in which each plaintiff asked damages of $2,500 for illness alleged to have been caused by staying in the station at Stanford, while awaiting the arrival of a train. They claimed the station was not heated and that they contracted colds. Several local people went to Frankfort as witnesses in these cases.

Break With Germany

Unrestricted Submarine Policy
Becomes Imminent As Result Of Her

Washington, Jan. 31.—Germany has declared unrestricted submarine warfare.

A starvation blockade of England, the like of which the world never has seen, was announced to the world today in notes delivered to American Ambassador Gernrd in Berlin and to the State Department here by Count von Bernstorff.

Again the United States faces severance of diplomatic relations with Germany with all its eventual possibilities. President Wilson's repeated warnings of "a world a-fire" and Secretary Lansing's "verge of war" statement are being recalled in the capital tonight with feelings of apprehension and misgiving.

Germany's action is the super-crisis of all those that have stirred the American Government in two and a half years of world war.

Talk of peace and means of preserving the peace of the world has gone glimmering. President Wilson, incredulous at first when the unofficial text of Germany's warning was brought to him, at once called for the official document which had just been presented to Secretary Lansing by the German Ambassador.

A cloud of deepest anxiety settled over the White House and the State Department. The President and his advisers apparently were confronted with the greatest international problem which the European war had yet presented. It was pointed out that President probably would not decide on a course of action without laying the entire situation before the Cabinet. The Cabinet will not meet in regular session until Friday, but it was believed possible that the President might summon his lieutenants to the White House at any time. It was likewise pointed out that the President nearly a year ago promised Congressional leaders that he would not break relations with any European nation over questions relating to the war without first consulting them. It was believed certain that the President will call a joint session of Congress and lay the entire matter before them.

The decision as to what the course of the American Government shall be lies with the President, who, in the final note on the Sussex case, said:

"If it is still the purpose of the Imperial Government to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare against vessels of commerce by the use of submarines without regard to what the United States must consider the sacred and indisputable rules of international law and the universally recognized dictates of humanity, the Government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue. Unless the Imperial Government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present method of submarine warfare against passenger and freight-carrying vessels, the Government of the United States can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the German Empire altogether. This action the Government of the United States contemplates with the greatest reluctance but feels constrained to take in behalf of humanity and the rights of neutral nations."

Nearly two years ago the United States delivered this ultimatum on question of the use of submarines. At that time Germany agreed to restrict the use of submarines. Today's note not only removes all restrictions, but directs the new submarine campaign against neutral as well as belligerent merchant ships. It prescribes a "barred zone" about the Entente nations, forbids all ships under penalty of sinking to keep out of that zone. There was no question in official Washington tonight that the submarine plans laid down in the note are flatly in contradiction of the agreement laid down by the German Government when it accepted the Sussex note.

On Friday it was announced that President Wilson's answer to Germany's declaration of unrestricted warfare has been decided upon but is known only to three or four members of his officials' family. Whether it will be solemn warning of a break in diplomatic relations if Germany's campaign is carried out or actually a severance of relations without further waiting remained undisclosed.

Bird Feed By Barrel

Must Have Been Scattered Out On Snow Around Dunnville

The heavy snow did not destroy the quail in Kentucky, according to reports received by J. Q. Ward, executive agent for the Kentucky Game and Fish Commission at Frankfort. He said the department is indebted to many farmers who helped to feed the birds. The wardens did all they could, but were unable to cover the State.

District Game Warden Sam J. Embury, here, is having some interesting aftermaths of the "feed the birds" order sent broadcast over the state by the State Game Warden. When he received the wire from Mr. Ward to phone over the district and tell the farmers to feed the birds, he did so and told them as per instructions, to send in their bills. Last week he received bills from Dunnville, Casey county, amounting to a total of about $75. Mr. Embury says that he has fired the bills back, with the statement that $75 would feed all the birds in the four counties of the district the whole winter.

Judge Harry N. Jones

Formerly Of McCreary County, Buys
Out E. C. Walton's Store

E. C. Walton, who embarked in the grocery and meat business some two months ago, buying out W. R. Willis & Son, has sold out to Judge Harry N. Jones, originally of Campbellsville, but who moved here from London, where he has lived the past year. Mr. Jones took charge Thursday, having inherited the night previous. Blackburn Huffman, who had charge of the meat department with Mr. Walton, will continue with Mr. Jones.

Mr. Jones was a resident of McCreary county when that county was created and had the distinction of being its first county judge, having been appointed by Gov. McCreery. As that county is overwhelmingly republican, it is hardly necessary to state that he was not a candidate when an election for his successor was held.

Mrs. Jones came down soon after her husband had arrived and they are living for the present in the rooms over the store. Their children, who are in school, will join them soon.

D. A. R. TO ENTERTAIN

At the meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution Saturday afternoon further plans were discussed about the evening to be given by the Dramatic Club, the proceeds to be divided with the Logan Whitley Chapter. This will be an evening of short plays and they will be presented about the middle or the last of the month. The Stanford Dramatic Club will be assisted by the Southwick Club of Crab Orchard. Each member of the chapter is expected to do all she can toward the success of this.

A butcher shop in which horse meat is sold exclusively has been opened in Harlem. A sign over the shop reads: "Horse flesh for sale here." Round and sirloin steaks are quoted at 12 cents a pound, while inferior cuts sell as low as 6 cents a pound. Horse meat frankfurters retail at 10 cents a dozen.

A bill to permit women to vote in all Texas primaries, which in effect would be virtually complete woman suffrage, as the primaries are equivalent to election, was introduced in the Texas State Senate recently. Sponsors of the bill expressed confidence that it would receive the necessary majority vote.

A contract pleaded in a suit to recover $500 between Peyton Kichie, Democratic nominee for Jailer in Knott county in 1913, and H. Cody, his Republican opponent, by which Cody resigned the nomination just before the election on promise of being Kichie's deputy, and receiving half the salary, was denounced by the Court of Appeals this week as buying and selling a nomination "immoral and illegal." Kichie had posted $500 on the bargain, which was loaned out by the holder. Kichie recovered judgment against the maker of the note, but the judgment was reversed with direction to sustain a demurrer to his petition. 10-1

Improving Phone Plant

Crew of Men Here Putting In All
Cable Distribution System

H. T. Greathouse is at the head of a crew of about a dozen men who are in Stanford doing some improving work on the local Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph system. They are rebuilding the plant so as to provide for all cable distribution, with all open wire dismantled except toll lines. The improvements will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000, it is understood, and will put the Stanford plant in shape for better service than ever before.

Wray Powell, who has been "trouble man" for the local phone system for some time, has been transferred to the repair crew which is now working on the local phone system. His place as trouble man here will be taken by Joseph Rose, who has hitherto been with the crew. This transfer will give Mr. Powell opportunity to gain a wider experience in the company's service. James Pickett, Tribune, son of Judge and Mrs. W. A. Tribble, of this city, is clerk of the crew here now, and Maurice Bruce, of this city, is one of its members.

DR. COX WILL BE BURIED HERE

Former Resident of Stanford Dies At Ripe Old Age At Home of Son
In Jonesboro, Tennessee

Dr. C. A. Cox, for many years a resident of Stanford, died at an early hour Friday, at the home of his son, Charles E. Cox, at Jonesboro, Tenn., at the advanced age of 79 years. A telegram to his nephew, Deputy Collector Rowan Sautley, contained the brief announcement of his demise, which did not come as a surprise, for his health had been steadily declining since the death of his wife a little more than five years ago.

Dr. Cox was born in Missouri, but came to Kentucky when a mere boy and settled in Wayne county. He was reared on a farm but studied medicine, and was known as a very skillful surgeon in his younger days. When the Civil War broke out, he joined the Union army and was made a surgeon with the rank of captain. He served throughout hostilities, and after peace was established, returned to Kentucky and for many years practiced his profession. He married Miss Helen Sautley, youngest sister of the late Judge M. C. Sautley and to them were born five children, only one of whom survives to mourn the loss of his kind and indulgent father as lived. Charles E. Cox, now a successful business man of Jonesboro, Tenn.

The bitterness of the Civil war was, perhaps, more pronounced in Wayne and adjoining counties than anywhere else in Kentucky, due to the fact that those who espoused the cause of the South were vastly in the minority. Dr. Cox's brothers-in-law, Jas. M. Sautley, who was killed in 1862, and Judge Sautley, were both Confederate soldiers, and were frequently engaged in bitter fights against the regiment to which Dr. Cox belonged, but after peace was restored, they became fast friends, and no man ever had a truer, better friend than the late Judge Sautley had in Dr. Cox.

Some years ago, the deceased located in Stanford and for a long while was a successful traveling salesman, but age coming upon him, he gave up his business and lived quietly with his son until the end came to him this morning.

Dr. Cox was a devout Christian, a consistent member of the Methodist church and he yielded up the mortal life, firm in the faith of the true and living God, and in a benign belief in the everlasting joy of those who trust in their Savior.

The remains will be brought here for interment, the funeral probably being from the home of Mr. Sautley on Danville avenue.

WHISKY CAUSED THIS KILLING

Nath Lowry, about 25 years old, living near Valley View, Madison county, was placed in jail at Richmond, charged with cutting and killing Willie Smith, a negro, 19 years old. According to Lowry, he gave the negro $1.50 Saturday night with which to buy a quart of whisky, and the negro failed to return. About 9 o'clock next morning he met the negro crossing Sycamore street, in the negro section, and demanded the return of his money. The negro, he says, struck him with his fist. He hit back with his knife, striking the negro in the throat, inflicting a wound which killed him almost instantly. Lowry was held to the grand jury without bail.

"The last year was a trying one for me. My health had been steadily on the down grade. Often it would be 1 or 2 o'clock before I could go to sleep. I got up in the morning almost as tired as when I went to bed. "During the day my stomach bothered me. A terrible I had a heavy bloated feeling. I was tired all the time and didn't have any ambition. Miss Lizzie Carson was called to Brodhead Monday to be at the bedside of a sick brother, who is very low with pneumonia.

Henry Brooks, of Lebanon Junction, was here on business Tuesday.

Rev. C. W. Wilmore, preached two fine sermons at the Baptist church Sunday. It is to be regretted that he will not be able to give the church here two Sundays as they agreed to, as his time will all be taken in Wilmore and the church will have to look elsewhere for a pastor.

Rev. Pervis will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and night. Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at the Baptist church. Teachers' Training Class Thursday night at the Christian church.

The Baptist Ladies Aid met last week with Mrs. Mabel Perkins and a fine evening was enjoyed. They have a large membership of earnest workers and are getting some mighty pretty work done.

On Monday afternoon the Ladies Aid of the Christian church gave a miscellaneous shower to the pastor, Rev. Pervis and wife.

Twenty-five of the members were present and such a supply of good things as they brought! Things useful as well as eatables, were included. Later in the afternoon of the same day R. L. Collier came with a large basket of the finest potatoes and a gallon bucket of lard. As Mr. Collier is a member of another church his donation was doubly appreciated by the pastor and his wife. Rev. Pervis gave a beautiful expression of thanks to the Aid and prayed a most appropriate prayer. They are very grateful to all who so kindly remembered them.

John Stephenson, Jr., left Tuesday for Cincinnati to resume his work there. He had a most pleasant stay with his parents and friends here, who regretted to give him up. Thomas Hays Brounagh accompanied him as far as Lexington.

Henry Messer and wife and James Messer, Jr., were in Stanford Friday and Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Wilcher.

Mrs. Mollie Collier and Jennie Tatem went to Lexington Monday to see Mrs. Bogie.

Mt. Moriah

The entire community was wrapped in gloom early Monday morning, when the sad news swiftly spread that the Death Angel had come into the home of Sherman Warfield and taken from his bosom a loving wife and mother. To know Mrs. Warfield was to love her and many friends and acquaintances are made sad at her taking away. She was faithful member of the Mt. Moriah church, also a regular attendant and her presence will be greatly missed by this congregation. "Weep not dear husband and children, she is not dead but sleepeth." She cannot come to you but you can go to her. May the God of heaven and earth bless each one of you and help you to be prepared to be reunited with wife and mother in that City "not made with hands, eternal and in the heavens."

Mrs. Carey Epperson has been very sick, but is better at this writing, we are glad to say.

Mrs. Ansel Baugh and son, Chas. Dunaway sold their farm to Gene Hutchinson for $800. Mr. Dunaway will go to Indiana.

Mrs. Gene Hutchinson and children were pleasant visitors of Mrs. Burton Spires Tuesday.

Mrs. B. D. Hiatt spent the day with Mrs. Joe Gerkey last Sunday.

Misses Lucile and Marguerite Bastin spent the day with Misses Viola and Lillian Hiatt last Sunday.

Rev. Masters preached at Mt. Moriah last Sunday and night, with a very good attendance. He will preach

French Mothers To Be Subsidized

Harper's Bazar for February says: One of the most remarkable results of the war is a plan in France for subsidizing motherhood. A bill which provides for a certain sum of money to be given for the first child, and other sums for each succeeding child, is soon to be introduced. There is sure to be an increased birth-rate in consequence. How often have we heard a father or mother say: "Yes we should so much like to have another child to grow up with this one but we cannot afford it. It will take all the money we can save to give this one a start in life." The feeling of financial responsibility for their children is deeply rooted in French parents. Here is an idea that Americans might well think about. But it is only one of the unusual pieces of news we find in the current issue of Harper's Bazar. As a journal which brings you the latest and most interesting news from all countries, Harper's Bazar is without rival among American magazines.

"Inside" Information About Eczema

Washing the skin, rubbing salves and lotions on it, will not cure your Eczema. You may temporarily relieve the constant itching, but if you want to get at the seat of the trouble, you must purify your blood.

Infected blood is dangerous, and when the watery sores and pimples appear, you should lose no time in procuring a bottle of S. S. S.

This great remedy, which was discovered over fifty years ago, will wash out and strengthen your blood, and the annoying and disfiguring eruptions of the skin will disappear, and you will soon feel healthy and vigorous again.

S. S. S. being purely vegetable, is entirely free from all "dope" and drugs; get it at your druggist's and insist upon the genuine. For free, expert advice, write to our Medical Department, Swift Specific Co., 307 Swift Building, Atlanta, Ga.

Big Cut on Clothing!

There is a scarcity of woollens for suits and overcoats made by the American Woolen Mills and other large manufacturers devoting their plants to making army blankets and heavy woollens for soldiers in Europe. In consequence, woollen materials have advanced in price and are still advancing. The suits we offer are all wool, cashmeres, chevots and worsteds, in brown, blacks, greys and blues; hand tailored with hand lined and be sold at a price well below the cost of being all wool. But we must make room for Spring Goods, hence these prices!

Preachersville

Mr. Frank Nigby, of Sonoma, Arizona, has not returned yet as he was contemplating. Recently he was injured while operating his well drilling machinery, but not seriously.
Paul Finch, proprietor of the Drake's Creek Stock Farm, has one of the neatest looking barns in the East End, painted red.
J. F. Payne, our former blacksmith, has located at Rowland. He sold his home here to J. M. Lunsford.

Business meeting of the Baptist church here on Saturday the third.
Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Hutchins have moved back to their home here to the delight of their many friends. Mr. Hutchins has just completed a very successful term of school in the Sopus district.

The family of J. P. Arnold have moved to the Lawson neighborhood.

The blue birds and robins were noticed here Jan. 20th, it being the earliest date of return known to the writer.

The latest word from the bedside of James F. Miller, is that he has been much worse lately.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theodor's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.
I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.

Theodor's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

and son Samp are about well again. Our old friend Mr. John Anderson is very low and not expected to live from his ailments to old age. He is 78 years old.

Miss Victoria Anderson, who is attending school at Berea, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Anderson.

The big snow caused the large tobacco barn belonging to W. H. Anderson to spread thus causing the roof to collapse. Its repair will be a considerable job.

Our friend, John Richardson, runs in a streak of bad luck. Late last fall while out on his farm at work he had the misfortune to get his foot caught by the wagon wheel which badly mangled the member. The next week the same foot was badly injured by the wagon again. Last September court he lost his purse containing $34. The purse was made of weasel skin.

While helping kill hogs some time ago W. Flannery, Sr., of the Stingy Creek section, slipped and his foot and leg were badly scalded in the hog box. His friends are glad to see him out again attending to business.

Mrs. John Richardson has been has been quite sick.

Some of the Miller family have had the measles down at the Horton place. Master Walter Bryant is still sick of the disease.

The recent high water did much damage. It washed over an acre of nice hemp for Robert White.

Winter Brings Colds To Children.
A child rarely goes through the whole winter without a cold, and every mother should have a reliable remedy handy. Fever, sore throat, tight chest and croupy coughs are sure symptoms. A dose of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey will loosen the phlegm, relieve the congested lungs and stop the cough. Its antiseptic pine balsams heal and soothe. For croup, whooping cough and chronic bronchial troubles try Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. At all Druggists, 25c.

THOSE AWFUL CRAMPS

Suggestions that may save Much Suffering

Marysville, Pa.—"For twelve years I suffered with terrible cramps. I would have to stay in bed several days every month. I tried all kinds of remedies and was treated by doctors, but my trouble continued until one day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for others. I tried it and now I am never troubled with cramps and feel like a different woman. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly and I am recommending it to my friends who suffer as I did."

—Mrs. GEORGE R. NAYLOR, Box 72, Marysville, Pa.

Young women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by this root and herb remedy.

Write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Only women open and read such letters.

A Word to the Public

I have bought out the Meat and Grocery Store of E. C. Walton and am continuing the business at the old stand. I ask a share of the public patronage, promising good goods and the best of meats at all times at the most reasonable prices. I have come to Stanford, hoping to spend my life here, having been impressed with its many advantages and the superiority of its citizenship. In short, I am not just here today and gone tomorrow. I want to live among you and become one of you. I trust that my deportment and conduct of my business will be such that I will merit your patronage and that you will not regret that I came into your midst. Hoping to become acquainted with you, and again asking a share of your patronage

Very truly,

HARRY N. JONES

TIRED OUT.

There's many a farmer's wife sits on the porch in the growing shadows of a summer evening, knowing to the full what it is to feel tired out; as if there were not another ounce of effort left in her. But she knows how much more she will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. That's the tiredness of a healthy woman. But it's a different thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. Just as in profound silence a discord jars the ear more forcibly, so now that she has stopped moving about, this tired woman feels more acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, thousands of them right here in Kentucky, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, heals inflammation and ulceration.

A strong, healthy woman instead of a tired and ailing one! Sounds like a miracle, doesn't it? But it isn't. It's only the ordinary, every-day work of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—just the work that it was made for.

It's a woman's medicine, carefully compounded for her by an experienced physician, and adapted to her delicate organism. It makes weak women strong, suffering women well.

Book on Women's Diseases sent free. Write Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free confidential advice. Dr. Pierce's Pellets. One a favorite two or three a cathartic; best for Liver Ills.

Rev. W. M. C. Hutchins filled his appointment at Liberty Saturday and Sunday and while there on Sunday attended the birthday dinner at Mr. George Gooch's, one of the best men in that section. He was 55 years old and his family and neighbors gave him a surprise. An elegant dinner was served.

Waynesburg

The school in Crab Orchard Division No. 2, sub-district 15, closed Friday January 26th, with several addresses and discourses by the pupils, which were followed by music. After the school entertainment was over Dr. Ferdinand Weber and Mr. Miller, of the district, gave very able talks, praising Prof. Kanawha Triplett for his work and the rapid progress the scholars had made under his instruction. Nearly all the patrons were present besides several visitors from other districts adjoining the school district.

N. B. Triplett has about 300 logs on the yard to be sawed up into lumber to build a store house in Waynesburg on a lot he owns. J. Elliott will begin to saw them in a few days.

Heard About Town

W. H. Kreuger, of Mt. Vernon, has returned from Virginia, where he went to attend a sale of the administrator of his father-in-law's estate. It is reliably reported that Mrs. Kreuger will inherit about $20,000 from the estate.

J. W. Rochester, assistant cashier of the Lincoln County National Bank bought this week from Mrs. J. E. Owsley, 125 acres off her farm in the East End of the county, this side of Crab Orchard. The tract Mr. Rochester owns adjoins the farm he already owned in that section, and gives him a nice boundary of about 220 acres all in one piece now.

W. R. Rice was here this week for the Kentucky Wagon Company, with whom he has accepted a very responsible position. His headquarters in the future will be in Louisville. He and Mrs. Rice have moved from Jackson, Tenn., where they have been for the past year, and are now at the Watter's Hotel, until the lease of their house, which they had rented out, expires and they can get it.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Taylor, of Stanford, Ky., are in the city and are stopping at the Adelphi. They are friends of the E. C. Walton's, formerly of Orlando, and the many friends of the Taylors here will be glad to learn they are doing well and are enjoying the best of health. The Taylors will probably leave tomorrow for Tampa, where they will take part in the Gasparilla events of next week.—Orlando, Fla., Reporter-Star.

Announcement is made from Frankfort, that teachers who have pursued the reading course, prescribed by the Kentucky Educational Association, will be given professional credits qualifying them for higher salaries. V., as general bookkeeper but returned to Broadhead last week and has taken charge of the stock of goods purchased from B. H. Hells. He will continue business in the Hicks building, second floor north of Citizens Bank in that bustling little city.

KEEP IT AT HOME

A candidate for Representative in Garvard county incorporates in his platform a plank favoring a law directing all automobile license tax to be paid to the county clerk of the county in which the automobile is owned, and to be used for the maintenance and upkeep of the public roads of the county. This is a change that has suggested itself to many minds, and, we believe, would meet with approval throughout the state. There has always been a feeling that there are some bad leaks in the collection and distribution of the state license tax money, and that the county roads have not gotten the proper returns from this fund. Hardin county, it is estimated this year, will pay over $2,000 motorists' license, and probably better results could be secured if the money was paid to the county clerk, and expended separately on the highways most used by the automobiles. —E-town News.

KILLS PAIN

This Simple Laxative A Household Necessity

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPIN SHOULD HAVE A PLACE IN EVERY HOME

Constipation, or inability of bowels to perform their normal function, is a condition that nearly everyone experiences with more or less frequency, is the direct cause of much misery. When the bowels become clogged with refuse from the stomach, foul gases and poisons are generated, and unless the congestion is quickly relieved the system becomes weakened and most susceptible to attack.

Various remedies to relieve constipation are prescribed, but many of these contain cathartic or purgative agents that are harsh and violent in their action, and shock the system. The most effective remedy is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepin that is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

The Hon. John D. Koester of Bradywine, W. Va., who has represented his district in the State Legislature for six years, writes that he uses Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and finds it a splendid laxative, easy to take and mild, yet positive in its action, and that it should be in every household for use when needed.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists in all parts of the United States and costs only fifty cents a bottle. It contains no opiate or narcotic drug, does not grip, and is recommended as a family laxative, and enough for the faintest baby, yet is so powerful to act on the strongest constitution.

To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that the name of Dr. Caldwell's signature is on the label, and that the bottle is packed in a trial bottle, free of charge, and obtained by writing to Dr. W. J. A little baby daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jasper about a week ago. The little miss has been christened Mary Lee.

J. C. Fogle and W. T. Jasper are fencing a large boundary of knob land on the old Fogle place, two miles below town, and will stock it with goats. They propose also to place English pheasants, Mexican quails and other game birds in this forest, provided they get the assurance of protection against hunters. They already have rabbits and squirrels in abundance, and they are somewhat opposed to having them killed.

The high water a week ago washed out the foot bridge at Yosemite and the people over there are taking subscription to build a wagon bridge in its stead. They are succeeding fairly well so we learn. About $600 has been pledged, and they think there will be no trouble in securing a sufficient amount to put up a good substantial bridge.

MARET IN TEXAS

The San Antonio Express said last week: James Maret of Mt. Vernon, Ky., president of the Boone Way Association of his native State, is in San Antonio, Mr. Maret is making a tour through Texas studying the construction methods of our public highways. He expressed himself as deeply gratified with the progress in good-road building made by Texas, which he says compares favorably with road construction of other Southern States through which he has traveled.

Texas rates high among the States in the matter of good roads," said Mr. Maret, "and she has cause to be proud of her progress in this line."

"Many years ago Kentucky was noted for its good roads, but those in charge of her highways, through neglect allowed her to fall behind until she now occupies fourteenth place on the list of States.

"During the past two years, however, good progress has been made toward lifting my State out of its miserable place. We have built many good highways, and we have others under construction. One of the most important of these is a road known as the Boone Way, which extends for more than a thousand miles and runs from Kenton, Ohio, through Louisville, Ky., to Lexington and Boone Park, the old home of Daniel Boone, in North Carolina." While here Mr. Maret is visiting his brother, S. G. Maret, at 108 Tolle Place, County Engineer Bennett will show Mr. Maret over the Bexar county roads.

You surely cannot afford to sow inferior seed for a difference of 6 to 10c per acre when the results may mean 6 to 10 dollars to you, to say nothing of having your farm infested with obnoxious weeds and filth.
